UM TO OFFER ORIENTATION SESSIONS FOR NEW STUDENTS

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana will offer summer orientation programs that will ease freshmen into college life and help transfer students learn the ropes at UM.

Sessions for incoming freshmen will be July 9-10 and Aug. 6-7. The participants will take placement exams, plan class schedules with faculty advisers and meet future classmates. They'll also learn about academic programs and policies and find out how to use UM services and resources.

The parents or spouses of freshmen participants may wish to take part in orientation sessions scheduled concurrently with the student sessions in July and August. The programs will give parents and spouses a chance to get acquainted with the campus and meet faculty, administrators and upperclass students.

Orientation sessions for transfer students will be held July 10 and Aug. 7. Their parents or spouses are welcome to visit the campus at these times, although no formal orientation programs have been scheduled for them.

Students in the summer orientation sessions will have the advantage of being able to register in advance for fall classes,
